1		Who is required to unload the trailers at the Eurovision site in Israel and who is required to unload the trailers after returning the equipment to the target countries?	The Supplier will be required to load the trailers at their origin (at the different pick up locations) and unload the trailers when the equipment returns. The production will have crew to unload and load the trailers at the venue.
2		We ask for the value of the equipment for each shipment that needs to arrive in Israel.	This is impossible to predict at this point since none of the deliveries are finalized yet.
3		Who will pay the guarantee to produce the Ata Carne (whether the franchisee or owner of the equipment in the country of origin)?	The provider of the equipment.
4		Does KAN have priority over which equipment should be brought to Israel first? This is because there may be several shipments on different dates to Israel.	Yes, there will be a very detailed schedule prepared for each individual trailer's arrival time to the venue.
